This is a very attractive filfy of medium size and athletic. She is by the champion sprinter Perfect Power and out of Perfect Showdance, the half sister to the Prestige Stakes winner Kilmar. She is likely to be an early two year old.

Her dam, Perfect Showdance by Showcasing was 2nd in a novice race a two years and is out of the Stakes and Shergar cup winner, Perfect Star. She is a half sister to the Prestige Stakes winner,Kilmar and to the Nottinghamshire Oaks 2nd, Tears of the Sun. Perfect Showdance has one winner from two runners including Itsatenfromlen who won two races in France and £37,913 with a Racing Post rating of 93 and was 4th in the Ballyhane Blenheim Stakes at Fairyhouse. He was then exported and won again.

Her sire, Perfect Power by Ardad was the Champion two year old in France winning the Group 1 Middle Park Stakesa and the Group 1 Prix Morny both over six furlongs and the Group 2 Norfolk Stakes over 5 furlongs. At three he won the Greenham stakes and the Group 1 Commonwealth cup at Royal Ascot.. He is by a sire which produces prococious speed that can excel at Royal Ascot and no horse from the sire line has prcduced as many sprinting group 1s as Perfect Power. He went to stud in 2023 and among his 100 first crop mares were the dams of the Group 1 filly, Melo Melo and the blistering fast Kachy, and sisters to the 2023 Cox Plate winner Romantic Warrior, Covert Love, The Tin Man, Simply Perfect and Glass Slippers. His first crop are now yearlings.

The filly is EBF and BC nominated and is registered for the £20,000 GBB scheme.
